THRILLING SCENE IN COURT-STRUCK IN-SANE ON THE WITNESS STAND .- [From the Chillicothe (O.) Register, Feb. 12.1-One of the most exciting and startling scenes that ever occurred in court in this city took place late in the afternoon of yesterday week, just as we were going to press. The particulars are about as follows:

At the time mentioned the case in progress was that of Catharine Miller, who sued by her next friend, C. W. Gilmore, vs. John S. Mace and others, the suit being brought to recover household goods levied on as belonging to Thomas Miller (Mrs. Miller's husband), and which the plaintiff claims as hers.

Mr. Miller was on the stand nearly all day Thursday, and subjected to a rigid examination, in the course of which he testified, in effect, that he was not possessed of any property at the time or since his marriage-that the capital and property used and occupied by him was his wife's.

On Friday afternoon Mr. Miller was again called to the stand to undergo cross examination by M. L. Clarke, esq.; in the course of which the latter gentleman, in endeavoring to show a discrepancy between Mr. Miller's present statements and those made some time since, asked if he had not, several years ago, stated to Mr. W. H. Reed that he was then worth quite a large sum of money. The answer to this was rather indefinite-that he might or might not have so stated; but if he did, the meaning was that he was worth said sum outside of his indebtedness to his family. Mr. Clarke then asked if, since his marriage, he had not become surety on the bond of a certain Government official. After a little hes itancy an affirmative answer was given; whereupon counsel wished to know if the witness did not at that time swear that he was worth

To this query no reply was made, and for a few moments a deep and sudden silence ensued. Finally, Mr. Marshall, of counsel for plaintiff. broke the oppressive silence by rising to address the Court and at that moment Mr. Miller, who was standing just in front of the jury-room door, turned to the Judge and said, "May it please your Honor, I wish to make a few reand immediately after clapped his hands to his head and exclaimed, "I feel-as if I was getting-paralysis of the brain!" and commenced sinking to the floor, uttering such prayerful cjaculation as "Lord, have mercy on my soul!. O Lord, bless me and pardon my sins!" &c., or words to that effect.

Before reaching the floor he was caught in the arms of persons near by, and carried back into the jury-room. On reaching there he espied a gentleman approaching who he said had en deavored to ruin him, and he made an effort to get hold of the person, but was prevented.

The excitement in the court room at the time was intense, every one starting to his feet to get a better view of the strange scene and its author. In another moment, however, Mr. Miller having broken lose from those having him in charge in the jury room, with pallid face, disheveled hair, rolling eyes, and undistinguishable mutterings, rushed, with long strides, into the court-room, pressing his elbows to his sides, and puffing the wind in gusts from his mouth. This sudden and terrifying irruption, as well it might, startled Judge, bar and audience, and a general stampede ensued. Neither the lawyers nor the audience stood upon the order of their going, but went at once.

After getting out to a point in front of the Judge, Mr. Miller was caught by Sheriff Mace, who, unaided, carried him into the clerk's room, and from thence had him conveyed to his hotel.

This sudden removal of the witness, and the disturbed condition in which it left the nerves of the bench and bar, made an adjournment necessary; which was had.

We have not attempted to depict the absolute frightfulness of the scene, for that would be impossible.

Mormon Polygamy .-- A witness before a Congressional committee on Wednesday, testified as follows:

This (exhibiting another paper to the committee) is a legacy return, the first ever made in that Territory. There is a list of forty-one names, the children of Heber C. Kimbail; he had fifty-four children in all, but thirteen died. I have taken the strong physiological ground—though Young says I "lie like hell"—that the Almighty himself has provided for the drowning out of polygamy though the operation of natural laws. I base the opinion on the fact that out of every hundred children born in polygamy seventy-five are males. I have the statistics of two hundred and fifty-seven families-names picked up bere and there, not selected with any reference to this question-and in these two hundred and fifty seven families eighty three out of each hundred of the children are males. The day before I left, David Cannland, chief elerk of the Zion's Co-operative Mercantile Institution, told me that he had fitteen little boys under eleven years of age, and six daughters. The following interesting statements were made by another witness in answer to questions: "I am quite confident that not over one sixth of the adult male population of Utah are polygamists. Of course more woman are polygamist, practically, than men. Some large esti mates are made as to the number of polygamists; but as the numbers of the sexes are equal in SALT! Urah, it is manifestly impossible for everybody to have more than one wife. About one-half the population not practically polygamists are in sympathy with it. I think that the entire population of the Territory is from ninety to

YOUNG MEN.

Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an ultimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senators with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to estacy the living lyre, may call with full confidence.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS Immediately cured and full vigor restored.

This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety.—Young persons are too spt to commit ex cesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Consumption.

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prespects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulying in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating MAKRIAGE. reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial hap-piness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prosp ct hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own. DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, wi from education and respectability, can alon befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their ap-pearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, diseased nose, necturnal pains in the head and limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes, on the shin dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the cone of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commissers tion, till death puts a period to his dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns."

It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that DEADLY POISON, MY I CURY, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life misers. de. DR. JOHNSON. OFFICE, No. 7, SOUTH FREDERICK STREET
